At a moment's notice we can head off from 25 to 30 men, while we have on our files many more who are in need of work, and with whom we are in touch. W. SPENCER BOWEN, Manager of the Associated Charities.

RELATIVES CONTENT FOR PRIEST'S ESTATE

WASHINGTON—Whether the obligations of the Order of St. Benedict and of other religious orders containing vows of poverty are void as against public policy was argued in briefs filed in the supreme court here. On behalf of a niece and nephew of the late Father Wirth, priest of a church at Springfield, Minn., attorneys contended the vows he took to the order were void as against public policy, and that his property, consisting of the income from books he had written, should go to the heirs. They contended that the civil courts would no more enforce such an agreement than to enforce an agreement to render one's life to another. Attorneys on behalf of the order pointed to its achievements as showing it was not against public policy. "Through its followers and disciples," it was argued, "Christianity was first planted in various parts of England; the greater part of central Germany was evangelized; the German church was founded and the Teutonic races were converted. Education has been and is now among recognized and principal works of the Benedictines in America and other countries."

GOES TO TAKE FINAL LOOK AT THE FRIEDMAN PATIENTS

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Dr. A. M. Stimson, passed assistant surgeon of the United States public health service, will go to New York to take a final look at patients who took the Friedman "tuberculosis cure."

A preliminary report has been made and the results published of the Friedman investigations.

Surgeon General Rupert Blue has reported to the secretary of the treasury as follows: "While the studies of the board assigned to that work have not yet been completed, the preliminary report shows that the extravagant claims made by its sponsors for the treatment have not been confirmed by the board. The observations of the patients in the New York hospitals are being continued."

It is this work that Dr. Stimson expects to conclude in New York next week.
